FINANCE AND ACCOUNTING BRANCH, MELBOURNE 3000

Your Combined Receiving Licence, particulars of which are shown on the other side of this card, is due for renewal on the date indicated. The prescribed fee should be paid at a Post Office or by forwarding a remittance (payable to the P.M.G. Department) to the Receiver of Public Moneys, General Post Office.

This card should be presented intact when payment is effected, as portion of it will be returned to you for retention as your licence for the next twelve months.

The licence will authorise the use of all Broadcast Receivers and Television Receivers including those installed in a vehicle, possessed by you or a member of your family, provided the receivers are ordinarily kept at the address indicated on the licence.

The Broadcasting and Television Regulations provide that you shall notify the department within fourteen days if you change your address or within seven days if you do not intend to renew this licence.

Licences are not transferable from one person to another, and must be made available for inspection by an authorised officer.
